Goin' Band From Raiderland

The award-winning marching band at Texas Tech is the largest student organization on campus and holds the distinction of being the first collegiate marching band to travel in support of a football program.

The Carol Of Lights

Join thousands of cheering students and faculty as 25,000 lights blink on simultaneously to begin the holiday season.

Will Rogers And Soapsuds

Before every home football game, the Saddle Tramps wrap this 3,200-pound statue in red crêpe paper. Will and his faithful horse are riding into the sunset.

Arbor Day

Texas Tech celebrated its first Arbor Day in 1937, when students, faculty and staff planted 20,000 trees on the newly established campus. The tradition continues today. Each spring Red Raiders flock to Memorial Circle to plant flowers, toss Frisbees, listen to live music and -- of course! -- snag a free hot dog and T-shirt.

Just swipe your student ID to get into any home game!

Eat Good Food

The Commons Food Court, our newest dining hall, features an Einstein Brothers Bagel which adds to our many dining locations across campus. Grab Chick-fil-A at the Student Union or get a brick-oven pizza at the posh 1923. Want something lighter? Eat healthy at Smart Choices. Dine well. Be happy.

Home Sweet Home

The new 178,000 square-foot residence hall, Talkington, offers suites with full-sized refrigerators and bathrooms. We offer 16 on-campus living options – everything from residence halls to suites and even an apartment complex. Try lacrosse, rugby, flag football, polo...even quidditch. Rec Sports offers 28 clubs that compete with other schools, or join an intramural team to play other Red Raiders.

Float The Lazy River

Two acres of water slides, bubble couches, water volleyball and the lazy river ... it's 645 feet of awesome.
